Dates: Saturday & Sunday 20/11/21 & 21/11/21

Times: Saturday 10:00-16:00 & Sunday 10:00-14:00

Who is the workshop suitable for?

- Absolute beginners
- Those with experience
- Christmas lovers, particularly homemade Christmas fans!

How will it be taught?

- In a very relaxed and friendly environment
- Tutor demonstrations and 1:1 guidance (as appropriate)

What to expect:

To have artistic freedom to create hanging decorations, napkin rings, wall hangings or condiment bowls out of clay. There will be the option of using different clays, such as white and terracotta. Colour can be used on the pieces you make or left white, for a more contemporary feel. Your work will be fired and ready for you to collect at a pre arranged date, in early December.

Equipment and materials:

- Please bring;
  - An apron
  - Tea towel
  - Note/sketch book
  - Pencils
- You are free to use the tools at the centre, but if you would like to bring your own, please do so
- There will be an additional charge for clay used (max of £1.75 per lb)

Anything else I should know?

- Tea & coffee are available, at a small additional cost
- Bring a packed lunch, there is a microwave on site if necessary
- There is a large car park on site
- If you have not visited us before please use the Google maps link <https://goo.gl/maps/yC1ticMEE1R2> to find us.
