

Moving On In Sewing: Make Do & Mend

Tutor: Jeanette Goodwin

Dates: Monday 10/10/22

Times: 13:30 – 16:00

Does your favourite sweater have a hole? Or a skirt that's too long for your figure?

About the workshop:

The "Moving On In Sewing" series is designed to help those who have mastered the very basics and wish to extend their skills. Some sewing experience is necessary.

This workshop will help you learn to repair and alter your existing clothes.

Darning by hand and by machine will be taught, as well as turning up trousers and skirt hems correctly.

You are welcome to use our machines, however if you would prefer to bring your own, please do.

Please bring;

- a notebook and pen
- needles
- thread
- scissors
- pins
- tape measure

The class is taught by tutor demonstration, explanation and 1:1 assistance as necessary.

Additional Information;

Tea, coffee and biscuits are available in the kitchen area, for a small charge.

The classroom will be well ventilated, with open windows, additional layers may be necessary.

About the tutor;

Jeanette's Grandmother, was a professional needlewoman, and taught Jeanette how to sew, as a child. Jeanette made her own wedding dress and makes many of her own clothes now. She has had her own small business, making ball gowns and alike. We're very pleased she's on our team!
